

JULY
28th

Eth-Noh-Tec invites YOU to...

Sip Tea with Us!
(Join us for a Zoom "Tea" Time!)

Thurs. July 28, 2022
Time: 11 am (PST)
Zoom Link Below
Free! (Of Course!)

Educators, Administrators, Social Justice and Asian American History Advocates join us for tea...
Let's bring the History of Early Chinese American Pioneers of the Monterey Coast to our schools!

The "Red Altar" Story

"Red Altar: the Untold American Tale of a Chinese Fishing Village" Six Chinese teenagers shipwrecked off the Coast of Monterey, established a village and the first commercial fishing industries there. But a storm was brewing... the Anti Chinese Movement in America!

Introducing: Education Project Red Altar

"Red Altar" DVD & Online Link
Resource Guide 4th-5th Grade
Resource Guide Middle & High School (Pending)

Discover & Explore and Engage with us

What is the Project?
Why is it important NOW?
How can Teachers join our TEAM?
What's the NEXT step?

Nancy Wang & Robert Kikuchi-Yngojo, are co-founders of Eth-Noh-Tec, a nationally recognized storytelling non-profit theater company bringing cultural education and activism to all ages for over 40 years. www.ethnohtec.org

B.Y.O.T. "Bring Your Own Tea!"
ZOOM "TEA" LINK BELOW...

