CDP Workshops Kick-Off for 2024

The Asian Pacific State Employees Association (APSEA) and the Association of California State Employees with Disabilities (ACSED)—with assistance of the Department of Rehabilitation (DOR)—continue their partnership to host Career Development Program (CDP) workshop during the lunch hour.

The first workshop for the 2024 calendar year is scheduled for noon on Wednesday, January 24. This will be a virtual workshop conducted via Zoom.

Undersecretary Marko Mijic of the California Health and Human Services Agency will be speaking on the topic “Diversity Matters: Building a Resilient Workforce Together.”

This workshop will examine why diversity is a critical component that every organizations should embrace in order to thrive during difficult and volatile times.

Registration and participation for CDP workshops are free for members of APSEA and ACSED, and for employees of DOR and the Health and Human Services Agency.

Please register online by 5 p.m. on Friday, January 19 at:
